Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence
Department of the Army
Office of the AGOCS, Intelligence
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Bob:

Thank you for your invitation of 21 March for me to address the Conference of Major Army Command Intelligence Officers on 24 April and I accept with pleasure.

I understand that you will have no objection
if I make my remarks somewhat general in nature, rather than to limit them to the subject of collection and production.

Sincerely,

Honorable Allen Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence
2430 - E Street, N. W.
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Allen:

My office will conduct a Conference of Major Army Command Intelligence Officers at the Pentagon Building on 23, 24 and 25 April 1957. We would be honored to have you address the session on the collection and production of intelligence for a period of twenty to forty minutes on 24 April at 9:00 A.M.

Attending the conference will be the Intelligence officers of the fifteen major overseas and Continental U. S. Army commands and certain members of their staffs, as well as representatives of the operating divisions of my office. Your presence would add greatly to the success of the conference.

In order that we may finalize our agenda, an early indication from you would be appreciated.

With warm personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

ROBERT A. SCHOW
Major General, GS
ACofS, Intelligence
